SUNDAY SCHOOLS PICNIC ON BEACH

[Special Correspondence, Star-Bulletin.] WAILUKU, July 5.—The Sunday School of the Church of the Good Shepherd with the rector of the church, Rev. William S. Short, had a most delightful picnic at the Beach Cottage of the Waiolu Sugar Co. at Waiolu. A large per cent of the children in the Sunday school were present.

The day was spent most pleasantly in sports of various kinds, swimming and short trips to the interesting points near the cottage. Luncheon was served at noon. The Makawao Union church Sunday school held a picnic at Halehaku Gulch on the Fourth of July. The day was perfect and two large barges filled with children went to the beauty spots of the island. The gulch itself is well worth seeing, and the pleasure of the trip was enhanced by the fact that it was a Sunday school picnic and that so many could go. J. Patterson, the assistant superintendent of the Sunday school, was the originator of the plan which was so successfully carried out.

Col. Sam. Parker furnished much "copy" for the newspaper men at Chicago convention. Here is a story that was telegraphed all over the country. Col. Sam Parker, Linguist. Col. Sam Parker, of Honolulu, is some linguist. He admits it himself, and proof is unnecessary. He is willing to engage in earnest arguments with anyone who so desires, in what ever language the other fellow may choose. These all sound alike to Col. Sam. The colonel also talks rapidly to himself on occasion, and no one as yet has discovered just what language it is he employs in his musings. "If you are from Honolulu you must speak Hawaiian," some one remarked, casually, the other day. "Sure, I can talk it like a native," said Col. Sam, who happens to be half Hawaiian. "I can talk Kanaka to the Kanakas as if I were a Kanaka. I can swear in fourteen languages and dialects and I can whistle a word or two of several other tongues, including Esperanto.

"I really speak only three languages however, with any actual degree of fluency," he confessed. "I really am powerful good at English, United States and profane!"

Cable News DESERTING THE COLONEL

[Associated Press Cable] WASHINGTON, D. C., July 5.—California alone appears to be holding out for the colonel. The progressives in Sacramento yesterday decided that they will fight for the colonel, but they will fight under the name of the Republican party. This is apt to cause additional complications in the State, already in political confusion. In South Carolina, John Capers, member of the Republican national committee, and one of the delegates to the last Republican national convention, publicly announced yesterday that he proposes to shift his allegiance from Roosevelt, whom he supported at Chicago, to President Taft.

JOHNSON TO QUIT ON LABOR DAY

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 5.—Jack Johnson, the champion pugilist, reached here tonight, showing little if any effects of his fight with Flynn in Las Vegas of the day before. He announced that he will meet Palmer on Labor Day, if the latter still wishes it, but that after that fight he proposes to retire from the ring for good. Johnson said that he had cleared up $25,000 in his fight with Flynn, and added, with a grin that showed all the famous white teeth, that his white wife had won six thousand dollars additional by betting upon her husband.

LOVE-CRAZED MAN MURDERS BROTHER'S FAMILY

DAWSON, Alaska, July 5.—Eugene Vaglio, a miner, today murdered his brother and then shot down his sister-in-law and the latter's two children. He left the place, but returned after a short time and shot himself. His body was found on that of one of the girls he had murdered. It is said that infatuation for one of his nieces, which was bitterly opposed by his brother and brother's wife, drove Vaglio insane and led to the five murders.

ANOTHER FATAL TRAIN WRECK.

LATROBE, Pa., July 5.—A freight train crashed into a standing passenger train near here tonight, killing twenty-one of the passengers, and injuring more than thirty others. The wreckage then caught fire and the bodies were burned to a crisp.

CONGRESSMAN DEAD.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 5.—Congressman George R. Matby of Corning, N. Y., died at his home late tonight. The end was sudden, although Mr. Matby had been feeling indisposed for some days. Heart trouble is given as the cause.
